

Quartetto. Mansi

A video theatrical work for strings quartet

The Quartetto Mansi project is the result of Experimental Group Villanuccia and it is strictly linked with the universal elements Water, Air, Earth, Fire; it is compound for: a series of original scores, a quartet of strings and a video exhibition created specifically for an ideal combination of viewing and listening to music in a concert that, through the alchemy of elements, evolves to access in a new dimension of arts and in their metamorphosis to become Performance. The show presents an original, eclectic and charming creation, that has the power to bring the viewer beyond the realm of reality.
